" At last a book lias appeared which, is in accord with the needs of the time . . . All those who have felt the stirring of their Jewish soul will find what they require in Dr. Roth's very competent volume. . . . Dr. Roth has been eminently successful not merely as an historian but also as an artist."—The Jewish Chronicle.

" A triumph of balanced scholarship and lucid state-ment, in which the author is nowhere overcome by his learning or his loyalties.—Philip Guedalla in The Sunday Times. * - . ~

"Great learning, handled with great discretion, has made it possible for a record covering more than 3,000 crowded years to be contained within a single volume." —The Times Literary Supplement.

"Dr. Roth has given us a learned history that is as brilliant as it is comprehensive; nor is it likely to be superseded for many years to come."—The Church Times.
